Fred Griffin Joins Liner Grode Stein From Burke Williams & Sorensen
Firm Expands Its Employment Practice

Los Angeles - February 23, 2010 -- Liner Grode Stein Yankelevitz Sunshine Regenstreif & Taylor LLP (Liner), proudly announces Fred B. Griffin has joined the firm as partner in its Los Angeles Office. Fred's addition expands Liner's Employment and Labor Practice. Mr. Griffin joins from Burke Williams & Sorensen in Los Angeles.

"With an existing foundation of experience within entertainment employment-related matters, we are excited to formalize a practice area within the firm. We look forward to the growth of this department with Fred at the helm," said Stuart Liner, the Firm's Managing partner.

Mr. Griffin represents clients in both litigation and transactional matters. He defends employers against claims of wrongful termination, discrimination, harassment, retaliation, and violation of wage and hour laws in both state and federal courts. He represents management in all phases of management-union relations, including representation elections, contract negotiations, the handling of grievances and arbitrations.

"I am quite fortunate to have the opportunity to join such a dynamic firm as Liner Grode Stein, which has established itself as one of the premier law firms in California. I look forward to being a part of their strategic growth and having this great platform for my clients in the entertainment, manufacturing, medical technology, medical research, beauty supply and legal industries," said Mr. Griffin.

Mr. Griffin graduated Phi Beta Kappa from the University of California at Berkeley in 1972, received a J.D. degree from the University of Southern California in 1975 and received an MPP Degree from the University of Michigan in 1979. He is a frequent speaker at employment seminars and Human Resources programs.
